

Construction of Reghaia Landfill, Algeria

EDESSA assisted the Averda Group in the consultancy for the Construction of Reghaia Landfill.

The project included the construction of a new Landfill in Reghaia. The landfill will be designed to meet the specifications and requirements stipulated in National Law 01-19 on the management, control and disposal of waste.

The project also included the design of a leachate collection system and a sorting plant.

