

Interior Design – Qatari Diar Headquarters

EDESSA was retained by Qatari Diar to prepare the interior design for their headquarters in Asmara, Eritrea. The offices are located in an old 2-storey villa. The design included the lateral extension of the villa in order to increase the space required.

The scope of our services included detailed design, selection of material and furniture and follow-up with the local contractor for the execution of the works.