

Site Evaluations – Damascus, Syria

EDESSA was retained by an international investment group to look at sites in Damascus in Syria for the development of various projects ranging from residential, commercial, retail, hotels and resorts.

Several sites were retained and concept developments were proposed.