

Site Evaluations – Aden, Yemen

EDESSA was retained by a Yemeni Investment House to look at sites in Aden in Yemen for the development of various projects ranging from residential, commercial, retail, hotels and resorts.

Several sites were retained and concept developments were proposed. They included a residential development, a mixed-use development with a business hotel, a shopping center and a residential area and several resorts.