

Restructuring works School of Nursing American University of Beirut, Lebanon

EDESSA in association with JASSAMA Construction was retained by the American University of Beirut in order to conduct major restructuring works of the school of Nursing located adjacent to the American University Hospital.

The work included major structural investigation and resulting in the jacketing of columns and strengthening of beams and slabs.